METHOD OF PROCESSING Data processing takes place through the use of tools and procedures that ensure a high level of security and confidentiality. It can be carried out with electronic tools, and in certain circumstances with the aid of hard copies.

DATA CONSERVATION PERIOD Data is held for a period of time that doesn't exceed the fulfilment of the purposes for which the data is collected and processed in accordance with the execution of the contractual purposes.

DATA RECIPIENTS FME employees and/or collaborators may have access to donors' personal data. These personnel, who are formally appointed by the company as "authorized to process" will process the user's data exclusively for the purposes indicated in this disclaimer and in compliance with the provisions of the Regulation. FME may give third parties, as "external data processors" pursuant to Article 28 of the regulation, the right to access personal data. These may be by the way of example suppliers of IT and logistics services functional to achieving the stated purposes, professionals and consultants.

RIGHTS OF THE INTERESTED PARTIES The interested parties have the right to obtain from FME, in the foreseen cases, access to their personal data or the modification or cancellation thereof, the limitation of their processing, or oppose their processing (artt. 15 and subs. of the Regulation). Requests in this sense should be addressed to FME by contacting the Data Handler for FME (Fondazione Museo delle Antichità Egizie di Torino: Via Accademia delle Scienze n. 6, 10123, Torino (To) Italy email: : privacy@museoegizio.it).

RIGHT TO COMPLAIN Any interested party believing that the processing of their personal data through this website is in violation of the Regulation have the right to file a complaint with the Controlling Authority, pursuant to art. 77 of the Regulation itself, or to take legal action (art. 79 of the Regulation).
